Statement for Publication

Choices International has a clear vision for this summer camp and has developed a good working relationship with Chelsea FC to create an attractive and distinctive product for junior students and their parents. It presents as a professional organisation whose policies and procedures have been developed with great attention to detail.

Roehampton University provides a leafy, tranquil and well-appointed setting for the programme. Choices International's administrative systems, staff training and communication are all good. Information provided to staff and students is clear and comprehensive. Standards of care and supervision of juniors are excellent and all staff work well together to deliver a happy, secure and stimulating environment.

Points of Exceptional Quality or Innovation

- The range of incidents dealt with and the level of detail in which they are logged are testament to the high level of care provided and high standards of behaviour expected of the students.
- The organisation is commended for the high number of trained first aiders it has on and off-site.
- The organisation is commended for the attention it pays to fire safety.
- The teaching spaces have excellent AV/ICT facilities which the staff use with skill and confidence.
- The quality, detail and collaborative nature of the risk assessments make them a strength of the programme.
- There is significant strength and depth in the pool of staff available to cover absence.
- The organisation is commended for its promotion of core British values such as fair play, the rule of law, tolerance and respect.
- The organisation's commitment to the safety and welfare of the children is an outstanding feature of the programme.

Outcome of Inspection

The recommendation of the inspectors is to award accreditation for four years.
