

Management Committee

The Management Committee provides strategic direction for ABLS Accreditation. It meets twice yearly and comprises the Directors and individuals with relevant experience within the industry. It empowers the Chief Executive to manage day-to-day operations and implement strategy determined by and on behalf of the Committee.

Directors

Robin Leckie Marshall (Chair)

Tina Kinsella

Raj Mahapatra

Brian Watkins

Chief Executive Officer

Diana Lowe

Tina Kinsella

Ex chair of ABLS Association and previously Owner/Principal of business and language further education provider. Currently, Professional Development Educator, Trainer and Commissioner in Local Government.

Raj Mahapatra

Having practised law in London and New York, Raj now manages a consultancy firm that handles legal affairs for corporate clients.

Robin Leckie Marshall

Expert in IT and business strategy, service outsourcing, change management, systems development and procurement. Experienced mediator. Current Chair and former Treasurer of Ealing Mediation Service.

Brian Watkins

School governor and experienced committee chair

Diana Lowe

Experienced manager and administrator.

Expertise in marketing English as a Foreign Language with extensive knowledge of the sector.

The below serve as advisers to the Committee

Sandra Cornbleet

Freelance educational consultant with extensive experience within the ELT industry both in the public and private sector and at higher education level.

David McKay

Former senior manager in further education and conference and events management.