Statement for Publication

Windsor English is a long-established school in a prime location. It enjoys a good reputation with its students, many of whom return to the school and recommend it to their relatives and friends. Students appreciate the school's flexibility and the personal attention it provides.

The school benefits from having a capable and stable teaching staff, who are able to support the Academic Manager while he completes an ELT level 7 qualification. The standard of teaching is very good.

The school has worked diligently to implement the recommendations made in the previous inspection report. Improvements in the school's management and administration have been achieved and maintained.

The school has taken the decision not to offer homestay accommodation in future.
